Comfort Care as the New Medicine

March 13, 2015
Napa Valley College
Main Theatre
Napa, CA
9 am – 3 pm

Dr. Jonathan Evans, Chief of Geriatric Medicine, University of Virginia and Chair of the Ethics Committee for the American Medical Directors Association

This symposium is designed to teach caregivers and long term care providers the principles and implementation of a comfort-centered approach to dementia care to minimize problematic behavior and the use of psychotropic drugs while maximizing quality of life.

Presented by:

Dr. Jonathan Evans, Chief of Geriatric Medicine, University of Virginia and Chair of the Ethics Committee for the American Medical Directors Association

Tena Alonzo, M.A., Co-Director, Palliative Care for Advanced Dementia, The Beatitudes, Phoenix, AZ

Who Should Attend:

Nursing home and community care facility staff, health care providers, pharmacy staff, ombudsmen, regulatory agency staff, healthcare advocates, and other stakeholders.

Sponsored by:
Comfort Care as the New Medicine

Registration

Register Early - Seats are limited!

Registration Fee: $35

To Register:

Call 707-258-9087 or

To register by mail, please fill out the MAIL-IN REGISTRATION FORM below and mail it to:

Napa Valley Hospice Adult Day Services (NVHADS)
414 South Jefferson Street,
Napa, CA 94559

MAIL-IN REGISTRATION FORM

Comfort Care as the New Medicine - March 13th, 2015

Name: ____________________________  City: ____________________________

Facility Name: ____________________________  Zip Code: ____________________________

Address: ____________________________  Email: ____________________________

_________________________________  Phone: ____________________________

Mail to: Napa Valley Hospice Adult Day Services (NVHADS) 414 South Jefferson Street, Napa, CA 94559